Course Description:

HMD 211 is the study of nutrients essential to human life and well-being. Nutrients are studied relative to their function in metabolism, sources in food and relationship to health.

Prerequisites: None.

Colonnade Connections Information for HMD 211:

Human Nutrition, HMD 211, may be taken to fulfill the Systems category of the Connections requirements at Western Kentucky University only after students have earned at least 21 hours in WKU Colonnade Program coursework or have achieved junior status; information and skills to improve understanding of various factors that enhance health, well-being, and quality of life are addressed.

Old General Education Information for HMD 211:

Human Nutrition, HMD 211 (prior terms the course was called FACS 111 and CFS 111), may be taken to fulfill the Health and Wellness category of the OLD General Education requirements at Western Kentucky University; information and skills to improve understanding of various factors that enhance health, well-being, and quality of life are addressed. Course objectives marked with an asterisk are linked to this general education goal.

Terminal Course Outcome: Students will be able to critically assess nutrition information in the media, evaluate their food choices for appropriate nutrient and calorie content, and relate food choices to chronic disease risk.

Course Objectives: By the end of this course, students will be able to:

- 1) Discuss the role of nutrition and other lifestyle choices in the prevention of disease to include the dangers of deficits and toxicities on human body systems. *
- 2) Identify the functions, properties, human requirements and food sources of essential nutrients. *
- 3) Discuss tools, such as the DRI, MyPlate, Exchange Lists, or other food guidance systems, and their role in selecting a nutritionally adequate diet. *
- 4) Identify nutritional needs at different stages in human growth and development. *
- 5) Examine the principles and ethics involved in making nutrition recommendations, emphasizing the importance of nutrition research and reliable sources of nutrition information. *
- 6) Explain the effects of foods and nutrients or lack thereof on the body's digestive, absorptive, metabolic, reproductive and excretory systems. *
- 7) Identify factors affecting food supply systems such as sustainability, government regulatory systems, and food insecurity. *
- 8) Evaluate food beliefs, food and nutrition fads and advertisements based on the principles of nutrition.

*The course objectives marked with an asterisk are linked to the Colonnade Connections objectives for a Systems course.

Required Text**:

Joan Salge Blake. Nutrition & You, 5th Edition. Pearson Benjamin Cummings Publishing, 2020.

**Note: This course participates in The WKU Store's Day One Access Program. This program is designed to provide immediate access to the required materials for all students at prices cheaper than any other option.

Required materials will be delivered to you automatically by enrolling in this course unless you choose to opt-out. By participating in the program, The WKU Store will bill your Student Billing account, and you will see a charge appear on this Term along with Tuition and Fees ("Account Summary by Term" under the Student Services tab) labelled as "The WKU Store Purchases" after the Add/Drop period. For more information on this program or to opt out of participation, go to The WKU Store's website (www.wkustore.com) and click the Day One Access link under the Course Materials header.

This Day One Access provides both the e-text and Mastering Nutrition access to complete the assignments and study for the course. If a paper copy of the book is desired, you may still purchase a paper book through the bookstore, or online from any third party sites.

Additional Course Requirements:

None. For every exam, students are responsible for scheduling a time at a proctored center: <http://www.wku.edu/testing/>.

For Nutrition and Dietetics Students:

This class helps fulfill competencies (knowledge and skills) for Nutrition and Dietetics students set by the American Dietetic Association. To identify competencies specific to this class, please go to Dietetics Program (<http://www.wku.edu/facs/dietetics/index.php>).

Course Website:

For this course, we will be using a computerized system (website) called Blackboard.

- You will use this website to access all course information and materials
- The web address is Blackboard (<https://blackboard.wku.edu>).
- After you log in, you will be on a new page; this will be the "My WKU" screen. Under "My courses" on this webpage, click on "Human Nutrition", and this link will take you to the course website.
- The tabs on the left side of the screen are folders containing the various parts of the course. Please click on all of them to see what is available and where things are located. Everything is up for the whole term, nothing will be changed or added unless updates are necessary.

Grading and Evaluation:

Grades will be assigned according to the total points achieved in the class as follows (the % of points accumulated divided by the total points available):

Grade	Percentage

Total Points:	700	100.00%

Grading and Evaluation:

- 1. There will be five exams. Students must take the proctored exams at Western Kentucky University or at a designated off-campus testing site by arrangement with On Demand. Proctored examinations should be scheduled ONE WEEK ahead of time. Do not wait until the night before and expect to get a quick response, or your desired date and time.
- 2. To SCHEDULE an exam in Bowling Green, contact the On Demand Center at: Testing Center (<http://www.wku.edu/ondemand/exams.php>). It is the responsibility of the student to make arrangements to take the proctored exams. Be prepared to show a valid photo ID when taking your exam at any proctored location. Valid forms of ID include WKU Student ID, state issued driver's license, passport or military photo ID. If you have any questions, please call the On Demand office at 270-745-4158, 270-745-4159, or 1-800-535-5926 or email us at ondemand@wku.edu. You should receive email confirmation of your registration day and time. Please print and take that confirmation email with you to your exam.*
- 3. If you will NOT be testing in Bowling Green but WILL be testing AWAY from Bowling Green, Kentucky, then you will need to work with the On Demand Center to locate a proctored site and to schedule exams. Detailed instructions are given at Testing Center (<http://www.wku.edu/ondemand/exams.php>). Some institutions may charge a fee, so you should ask when you make your arrangements to test at that site. Be prepared to show a valid photo ID before taking your exam at any proctored location. Valid forms of ID include WKU Student ID, state issued driver's license, passport or military photo ID. If you have any questions, please call the On Demand office at 270-745-4158, 270-745-4159, or 1-800-535-5926 or email them at ondemand@wku.edu. You should receive email confirmation of your registration day and time. Please print and take that confirmation email with you to your exam.*
- 4. The five exams will cover all material in the assigned readings from the book. This includes the vocabulary in the book, as well as content in the text and graphics. The course description indicates which chapters are covered for each exam. Please note that the nature of the topic of nutrition is such that each new topic tends to build on information from previous topics. Consequently, all exams are comprehensive to some extent.
- 5. Exams will be primarily multiple choice, with some true/false. Some questions may require simple calculations.

6. No books, notes, or study materials can be used during the exams. Only the blackboard website with the examination tab may be open. No additional browsers, windows, or tabs may be open. You will only have one chance to take each exam.
7. Grades will be posted on WKU's Blackboard web site (<https://blackboard.wku.edu>).
8. Grades in the class are final and will not be changed unless there is a computational error or an error on the part of the instructor. If you need a certain grade in this course to maintain or increase your grade point average, you must put the appropriate amount of effort into the class.

Assignments:

1. There are numerous assignments. The introductory assignment is posted to Blackboard, under the "Assignments" button. The Introductory Assignment should be turned in by posting on blackboard, in the appropriate folder under the assignments tab (the same place you found the assignment, just click the title). The assignments that are turned in must be in one of three formats: word (.doc or .docx), portable document format (.pdf), or excel (.xls or .xlsx).
2. The Pearson Mastering Assignments and the Pearson website (including e-text) can be accessed through the "Assignments" and/or "Mastering Nutrition" buttons on Blackboard and then click the "Mastering Course Home" link. This is where you will find the Pearson Assignments and Vocabulary Quizzes that are for points (click through to "All Assignments"). This is also where you will find the Dynamic Study Modules for extra credit.
3. The power points, study guides, and chapter outlines are available for your use, if so desired. They are optional. The power points contain the same key points as the text, the information is just presented in a slightly different manner (order may vary). The study guides are designed to help you actively read the text and/or the power points. The study guides are in outline form and are a series of questions. You can utilize these to when reading, or studying, to test your understanding and recall of the material in each chapter.
4. There are additional study guides, flashcards, animations, videos, etc. on the Pearson website, but are also not required.
5. Work at your own pace – the schedules below are just a recommendation to keep on pace to complete the class in either one term (something that those using financial aid will need to do) or a bi-term. There are NO DUE DATES, other than the end of your term, as determined by your start date – this is determined by when you registered and if you used financial aid or not. For those who did not use financial aid, you have 9 months to complete the course. If you do not remember your start or end dates, please contact the staff at On Demand at ondemand@wku.edu or 270-745-4158.

Title IX Misconduct/Assault Statement

Western Kentucky University (WKU) is committed to supporting faculty, staff and students by upholding WKU's Title IX Sexual Misconduct/Assault Policy (#0.2070) at <https://wku.edu/eoo/documents/titleix/wkutitleixpolicyandgrievanceprocedure.pdf> and Discrimination and Harassment Policy (#0.2040) at https://wku.edu/policies/hr\_policies/2040\_discrimination\_harassment\_policy.pdf.

Under these policies, discrimination, harassment and/or sexual misconduct based on sex/gender are prohibited. If you experience an incident of sex/gender-based discrimination, harassment and/or sexual misconduct, you are encouraged to report it to the Title IX Coordinator, Andrea Anderson, 270-745-5398 or Title IX Investigators, Michael Crowe, 270-745-5429 or Joshua Hayes, 270-745-5121.

Please note that while you may report an incident of sex/gender based discrimination, harassment and/or sexual misconduct to a faculty member, WKU faculty are "Responsible Employees" of the University and MUST report what you share to WKU's Title IX Coordinator or Title IX Investigator. If you would like to speak with someone who may be able to afford you confidentiality, you may contact WKU's Counseling and Testing Center at 270-745-3159.

ADA Accommodation Statement

In compliance with University policy, students with disabilities who require academic and/or auxiliary accommodations for this course must contact the Student Accessibility Resource Center located in Downing Student Union, 1074. SARC can be reached by phone number at 270-745-5004 [270-745-3030 TTY] or via email at sarc.connect@wku.edu . Please do not request accommodations directly from the professor or instructor without a faculty notification letter (FNL) from The Student Accessibility Resource Center.

Academic Dishonesty:

1. Students will be expected to do his / her own work for exams, quizzes and all assignments.
2. Failure to comply with this policy will result in a failing grade for the exam / quiz / assignment and possibly and “F” for the course.
3. Students should be aware of WKU’s academic dishonesty policy (see WKU catalog, www.wku.edu/undergraduatecatalog/), which states: “Students who commit any act of academic dishonesty may receive from the instructor a failing grade in that portion of the coursework in which the act is detected or a failing grade in the course without possibility of withdrawal. The faculty member may also present the case to the Office of Judicial Affairs for disciplinary sanctions.”
4. Cheating: Any use of an unauthorized “aid” while taking a test, having another person take an exam or quiz in the place of the student, stealing an exam or quiz, utilization of a stolen exam or quiz, using group work as an individual’s work, and any other unauthorized assistance with quizzes / exams / assignments from others.
5. As stated in the WKU catalog, Cheating is defined as “No student shall receive or give assistance not authorized by the instructor in taking an examination or in the preparation of an essay, laboratory report, problem assignment, or other project that is submitted for purposes of grade determination” (see WKU catalog, www.wku.edu/undergraduatecatalog/).
6. Note: If the instructor or an exam proctor sees / finds a paper or electronic device with course information visible during the exam, this will be considered cheating and the student will receive a zero for the exam and possibly an “F” in the course. It is incumbent on the student to assure that all books, papers, notes and electronic devices are securely stored away. Visibility or use of a phone or other electronic device during an examination is considered cheating, whether or not course content is displayed – there is no tolerance in this area.
7. Fabrication: falsifying data in laboratory results, inventing information for a report, or falsifying citations to sources of information.

8. Facilitating Academic Dishonesty: aiding another student in committing academic misconduct. This is punishable the same as cheating, for both parties.
9. Interference: Stealing, changing, destroying, or impeding another student's work. Impeding includes stealing, defacing, or mutilating resources to deprive someone else the use of those resources.
10. Plagiarism: Using the ideas, words, or statements of another person without giving credit to that person. A student shall give credit to the works of others if the student uses another person's words, ideas, opinions, or theories or borrows facts, statistics or other illustrative material unless the information is common knowledge.
11. As stated in the WKU catalog, Plagiarism is "To represent written work taken from another source as one's own is plagiarism. Plagiarism is a serious offense. The academic work of a student must be his / her own. One must give any author credit for source material borrowed from him / her. To lift content directly from a source without giving credit is a flagrant act. To present a borrowed passage without reference to the source after having changed a few words is also plagiarism" (see WKU catalog, www.wku.edu/undergraduatecatalog/).
12. Violation of Course Rules: A student shall follow course rules in the course syllabus when those rules are related to the course content or to the enhancement of the learning process in the course.
