Course Description:

This course provides students with education and training to address diverse student needs in the P-12 setting. Clinical experiences in public schools and/or other appropriate settings away from campus are required. Students are responsible for their own transportation to designated or assigned sites.

Prerequisites:

EDU 250

All EDU 350 students must have access to a WKU-issued Google account. Other accounts (personal gmail or school-district issued gmail accounts) CANNOT be used for assignments or to log into Zoom.

If you have forgotten your WKU Google password go to: www.wku.edu/account and reset your Google Workspace for Education password. If you don't have a WKU-issued Google account please contact WKU's IT services at 270-745-7000 and request a WKU Google account.

Textbooks and Required Materials:

Textbook: Mastropieri M. A. & Scruggs T. E. (2018). The inclusive classroom: strategies for effective differentiated instruction (Sixth). Pearson.

Tradebook: Craft, J. (2019). New Kid. First edition. New York, NY. Harper, an imprint of Harper Collins Publishers

Online resources for “The New Kid”:

- Hoopla is a free digital library that works with your existing local library card (you enter the library name and then your card number) <https://www.hoopladigital.com/title/13038351>
- Flipbook-style online version - free online with no registration: <https://fliphtml5.com/mojmb/covs/basic>

Additional required readings will be provided by the instructor on Blackboard found under Course Content section.

Major Course Topics:

- Creating awareness of diversity

- Examining the roles of teachers to meet individual needs
- Utilizing assessments to determine student needs
- Implementing differentiation

Course Objectives:

1. Create a classroom environment that celebrates diversity, respects individual differences, and challenges each learner to meet high standards.
2. Summarize the collaborative roles of teachers (both special and general educators), along with parents, related service providers, and educational assistants (paraprofessionals) in developing an effective inclusive environment that meets learning/social/emotional needs and legal requirements of students (e.g., students at risk, those with disabilities, giftedness, twice-exceptionalities, and English language learners).
3. Explain how history has led to current legislation and identification of students (e.g., those with disabilities, giftedness, twice-exceptionalities, English language learners) along with the responsibilities of school personnel in IEP development and service delivery.
4. Develop a variety of pre-assessments based on interest, readiness, ability, and/or learning profile in order to appropriately address a diverse range of learners.
5. Provide appropriately challenging, differentiated learning experiences for students based on content, process, and/or product through a variety of strategies.
6. Recognize individual differences such as race, culture, linguistic, gender, ability, socio-economic status, and family situations and adjust instruction.
7. Acknowledge and address personal bias, stereotypes, and privilege.

Description of Course Assessments:

1. Formative Assessments (4 total): These will generally be posted a week in advance of the due date. These assignments might include creating a Flipgrid, making a video model, reading quizzes, written products, or other ways to formatively assess student progress toward understanding our course material.

2. Midterm: Students will examine a lesson plan and data from a hypothetical class. Using this information, they will complete a template responding to specific content covered in the first half of this course.

3. Weekly Assignments: Students will participate in work designed to deepen their understanding of the content on a weekly basis. Weekly participation during class is essential. Assigned resources (textbook readings, online articles, videos, recorded lectures, etc.) will be posted on Blackboard under Content, along with instructions for weekly assignments. Assignments will vary from week to week and may include discussion board posts, journal responses, structured response questions, video submissions, digital products, etc. Assignment due dates will be posted on Blackboard. Most assignments will generally be due on Sunday evenings, although any discussion board posts will generally be required to be completed mid-week to allow time for students to respond to each other's posts. We will NOT have discussion boards every week.

4. Instructional Practice Presentation Integrating Universal Design Assignment: Students will apply the tenets of universal design to create a digitally-interactive infographic or presentation explaining an evidence-based instructional practice to peers.

5. Field Experience Reflection: Students will reflect on their fieldwork experiences by completing a 1–2-page reflection template provided by their instructor.

6. Case Study Final: Students will demonstrate an understanding of culturally sustaining pedagogy by thoroughly responding to case study questions. Students will choose either an elementary, middle, or high school case study and play the role of a first-year teacher who is building a safe, innovative learning community.

Course Grading and Evaluation:

Attendance and Participation Policy:

WKU guide

Students in this online course are not expected to physically attend any class at WKU; however, student class participation in weekly online assignments is required. Each time you log into Blackboard on the web, please check “Announcements” and “Course Content” for any current or relevant new information. Nonattendance for a web-based course shall be defined as failure to perform any meaningful academically-related activity (including, but not limited to, the following: submitting an academic assignment, taking an exam, participating in an online discussion about academic matters) within one week of the course start date without previous arrangements with the instructor or department. Instructors have the right to drop non-attending students during the drop/add period specified in the Registration Guide to allow other students to register for the course, thus cutting down on waitlists and bottlenecks. Your instructor is happy to make an appointment with any student to help with any assignment or answer any questions. It is easiest for your instructor to respond quickly to email requests.

The U.S. Department of Education requires that distance education courses must include regular and substantive interaction between students and faculty. For more information about Regular and Substantive Interaction at WKU, please visit the Regular and Substantive Interaction in Online and Distance Learning webpage.

In this course, regular and substantive interaction will take place in the following ways:

- ❖ Synchronous online meetings and chats will be hosted by the instructor to further explore course material and answer student questions
- ❖ Faculty participation in discussion boards
- ❖ Weekly additions of content, resources, assignments, announcements (if needed) and lecture videos
- ❖ Timely and detailed feedback on assignments

Alternative Assignments: On rare occasions, faculty members may assign alternative work for students who have missed any part of a class or clinical to help the student regain what was lost during their absence if the faculty member feels this is appropriate.

Extenuating Circumstances: Unforeseen events such as auto accidents, deaths in the immediate family, or personal illness which requires a student to be absent from class or clinical may be viewed as an extenuating circumstance. In the case of such events, the student should notify faculty members as soon as possible. Vacations, weddings, doctor appointments, studying for an exam, working, etc. are not considered extenuating circumstances as these are not unforeseen events. Students wishing to claim extenuating circumstances will be asked to provide documentation of the condition if it leads to excessive absenteeism. The presence of extenuating circumstances does not guarantee that a student will be exempted from this attendance policy.

Personal Illness and Emergency: Students may not attend class or clinical if they have a fever or other evidence of a contagious illness. Students are expected to be fever free for 24 hours after an acute illness before returning to an in-person class or clinical setting. If students are unable to attend the regularly scheduled class, lab, or clinical rotation due to illness or such an emergency, they are required to provide advance notice via telephone or email to the faculty member teaching the course. In an emergency where advance notice is impossible, the student is required to notify the faculty member teaching the course as soon as possible. Students should contact their own healthcare provider for recommendations for follow-up treatment.

Technology

Students MUST: (1) have access to and be familiar with Blackboard to participate in this course; (2) frequently utilize the WKU email account provided by the university to receive communication from the instructor; and (3) make certain their technology is compatible with the WKU technology and working during the entirety of this class OR use campus-provided computer labs.

Students should NOT wait until the final day (or hours) to take an exam or submit an assignment in case a technical problem occurs. Upon discovery of a problem, the student should contact the WKU Help Desk at WKU Help Desk Link or 270-745-7000 to ascertain the cause of the problem. Further, the student should email the instructor during the time of the test or assignment to inform the instructor of the actions being taken. Remember, the instructor has no control over the technology used to deliver a class via the WKU servers and Blackboard. Students should keep a copy of all electronic communications with the WKU Help Desk so this may be relayed to the instructor if necessary.

Please do not expect the instructor to address your technology problems.

Emails to Instructor:

Emails are a perfect way to practice professionalism. So, every email should have a heading and title. Put the course code in your subject line “EDU 350” so it flags your instructor that the message is about this class. “Dear Mrs. Sheffield,” or “Hi Professor Sheffield” are appropriate greetings to begin your emails. It is important to know how to navigate the world of academia and educational settings in general. Using titles (usually “Dr.” or “Professor”) is a way to indicate your understanding of professionalism in this field. Also, make sure to sign your name at the end of an email or have an automatic signature at the bottom.

Covid Statement

All students are strongly encouraged to get the COVID-19 vaccine. Students who are fully vaccinated will not be required to wear masks or to quarantine if exposed to the virus. Based on the latest CDC and KY public health guidance, WKU will require the wearing of masks while indoors for those who have not been fully vaccinated to protect themselves and others. Persons not fully vaccinated must quarantine if exposed to someone with Covid-19. Accommodations can be requested in special cases through the Student Accessibility and Resource Center (SARC): 270-745-5004 (voice), 270-745-3030 (TTY), or 270-288-0597 (video).

All students must immediately report a positive Covid-19 test result or close contact with a person who has tested positive to the Covid-19 Assistance Line at 270-745-2019. The assistance line is available to answer questions regarding any Covid-19 related issue. This guidance is subject to change based on requirements set forth by public health agencies or the office of the governor. Please refer to the Healthy on the Hill website for the most current information. www.wku.edu/healthyonthehill

Student Disability Services

In compliance with University policy, students with disabilities who require academic and/or auxiliary accommodations for this course must contact the Student Accessibility Resource Center located in Downing Student Union, 1074. SARC can be reached by phone number at 270-745-5004 [270-745-3030 TTY] or via email at sarc.connect@wku.edu. Please do not request accommodations directly from the professor or instructor without a faculty notification letter (FNL) from The Student Accessibility Resource Center.

Title IX/Discrimination & Harassment

Western Kentucky University (WKU) is committed to supporting faculty, staff, and students by upholding WKU's Sex and Gender-Based Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation (#0.070) and Discrimination and Harassment Policy (#0.2040). Under these policies, discrimination, harassment and/or sexual misconduct based on sex/gender are prohibited. If you experience an incident of sex/gender-based discrimination, harassment and/or sexual misconduct, you are encouraged to report it to the Title IX Coordinator, Deborah Wilkins, 270-745-5398 or Title IX Investigators, Michael Crowe, 270-745-5429 or Joshua Hayes, 270-745-5121. Please note that while you may report an incident of sex/gender-based discrimination, harassment and/or sexual misconduct to a faculty member, WKU faculty are "Responsible Employees" of the University and MUST report what you share to WKU's Title IX Coordinator or Title IX Investigator. If you would like to speak with someone who may be able to afford you confidentiality, you may contact WKU's Counseling and Testing Center at 270-745-3159.

Statement of Diversity

Western Kentucky University is committed to empowering its campus community to embrace diversity by building equitable and inclusive learning, working, and living environments. At the heart of our mission, we seek to provide holistic education and employment experiences that prepare students, faculty, and staff to become effective scholars, contributors, and leaders in our diverse and evolving communities. To that end, this classroom is an inclusive space where all participants are welcomed and treated with respect, dignity, and acceptance. Immoral, illegal, or unethical behavior and/or communication will not be tolerated.

While the majority of students are comfortable with the pronoun sets “he/him” or “she/her,” there is a growing population who prefer “they/them” pronouns, or other pronoun sets like ze/zir, per/pers, ey/em, or xe/xem, to avoid binary gender association. Participants in this course may choose to go by the pronoun sets with which they identify and are most comfortable. In addition to pronouns, all students have the right to indicate their preferred first name on TopNet; this will appear on class rosters. If you did not specify your preferred name on TopNet, please let me know what name and pronouns I should use for you. Students’ chosen names and pronouns will be respected at all times in the classroom.

Plagiarism

To represent written work taken from another source as one’s own is plagiarism. Plagiarism is a serious offense. The academic work of a student must be the student’s own. One must give any author credit for source material borrowed from another. To lift content directly from a source without giving credit is a flagrant act. To present a borrowed passage without reference to the source after having changed a few words is also plagiarism.
