Term: Fall 2024

Course Description: A course designed to introduce the student to the economic, social, environmental, governmental and legal setting of real estate in the United States. We discuss the unique aspects of real estate as a commodity, an investment medium, and as a provider of shelter. The course explores the many career areas in the real estate industry as well as the informational needs of the homeowner.

Instructor: Maria C. Stewart, J.D.

- E-mail: maria.stewart@wku.edu
- When emailing your instructor please identify yourself and tell your instructor which course you are enrolled in. Your instructor teaches multiple courses. Knowing who you are and which course you are enrolled in helps your instructor assist you more quickly.

Office Hours: Email maria.stewart@wku.edu to schedule a Zoom meeting.

Learning Outcomes: Upon completion of RE 170C students will be better informed real estate market participants whether their primary real estate interests lie in consumption, investment, brokerage, appraisal, law, property and asset management, or any combination of these aspects of real estate.

Mandatory Access to Computer and Internet: This is a web-based course. Your instructor wants you to succeed in this course. In order to succeed in this course you must:

1. Have a computer.
2. Check your WKU student email at least once per day. When taking a web-based course email is the only way your instructor has to communicate important information to you.
3. Have a reliable internet source. All assignments, quizzes, and exams are submitted on our Blackboard course page. Reliable internet is a must!

4. Feel comfortable navigating Blackboard.

You need to get yourself up to speed in the four areas above before our semester begins.

- WKU IT Services offers a “New Student Technology Guide” which may help. Find it at <https://www.wku.edu/its/students/>
- WKU’s Service Desk is also very helpful. You can live chat with them or call them. Find them at <https://www.wku.edu/its/service-desk/>

Title IX- Sexual Misconduct/Assault: Members of the WKU community, in addition to guests and visitors, have the right to be free from sexual misconduct and sexual violence. All members of the campus community are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not infringe upon the rights of others. WKU’s Title IX policy is intended to establish a mechanism for determining when such conduct constitutes a violation of this policy. For additional information see <https://www.wku.edu/titleix/>

Student Accessibility Resource Center: The goal of the Student Accessibility Resource Center is to ensure students with disabilities are provided access to all facets of the Western Kentucky University experience; to facilitate and coordinate support services and programs that enable students with disabilities to maximize their educational potential; and to increase awareness among all members of the University so that students with disabilities are able to achieve academic success based on their abilities, not their disabilities. For additional information or to request services please go to <https://www.wku.edu/sarc/>

Academic Misconduct: WKU expects students to operate with the highest standard of integrity in all facets of the collegiate experience. Broadly defined, academic misconduct is any unethical self-serving action in the performance of an academic activity, deliberate or unintentional, that affords a student an unfair, unearned, or undeserved advantage. WKU’s academic misconduct policy: <https://www.wku.edu/studentconduct/process-for-academic-dishonesty.php>
